CONSUMPTION

AND ALL THE VARIOUS DISEASES OF the Head, Throat and Chest, including

Eye Ear and Heart,

—Successfully treated by—

M. Hilton Williams,

M. D., M. C. P. S. O.,

At 257 North Main st., opposite the Baker Block, Los Angeles, Cal.

PROPRIETOR OF THE DETROIT

Throat and Lung Institute,

—At Detroit, Michigan.—

Our California office is personally conducted by Dr. Williams, and is permanently established for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption. Catarrhal Ophthalmia (sore eyes). Catarrhal Deafness.

Also diseases of the heart. Our system of practice consists in the most approved Medicated Inhalations, combined with proper constitutional treatment. Having devoted all our time, energy and skill for the past 18 years to the treatment of the above diseases, we are enabled to offer the afflicted the most perfect remedies and appliances for the immediate cure of all those troublesome diseases.

Catarrh.

Catarrh is often regarded by the patient as a cold in the head, and he often expresses his astonishment at his remarkable tendency to contract it so often. Indeed it is declared that he is scarcely free from one cold before he takes another, and yet he is always exceedingly careful; it is also a matter of no surprise to him that the cold always seems to settle in the head and throat.

At times many of the symptoms of catarrh may seem to abate, and the patient is led to hope that the disease is about to wear off, but another class of symptoms soon appear, and he learns to his horror that instead of recovering from the disease, it is somewhat changed in its character, and has extended to the throat. A sense of weariness is often felt in reading, speaking, or singing; hoarseness at times occurs; a sensation of dryness is felt in the throat, or it appears that some foreign substance, as, for instance, a hair, is obstructed the throat; there becomes a sense of languor a fatigue, breath lessens upon a little exercise, a short, hacking cough, a peculiar sound in clearing the throat, a feeling as though there were not room enough in the chest to breathe —these and other symptoms occur since the disease has made considerable progress. Then it is a time when no language is adequate to begin its dreadful work. Up to this time the progress of the disease may have been slow, and the patient may, in expressing his confident hope that it will "wear off," declare that he has had the catarrh for years, and has not seemed to become any worse. He expresses his belief "bye-and-bye" recover; but his delusion in this grand error that has peopled our cemeteries with consumptives, is one of the forms of catarrh and finally in consumption.

The treatment of this disease requires care and per-severance to conduct it to a successful issue. The remedies must be carefully adapted to the various forms of the disease in each case, and applied directly to the parts affected, which may be done by the patients themselves, wherever they may be, and with such kindness to their daily occupation; and we would hereby urge our eastern friends the necessity of direct medication in the treatment of these diseases, and not to depend upon the beneficial effects of the climate alone for their restoration to health, as in this way thousands find their way to the grave, who might have been cured with the aid of proper remedies.

Inhalations are applicable to all diseases of the respiratory organs, including catarrh, throat diseases, asthma, bronchitis, consumption, and thousands of cases can be cured by this mode of treatment where nothing else can reach them. A portion of the lung affected in very case if taken in time.

Consultation free, and prices within the reach of all.

Those who desire to consult me in regard to their health and to call at the office for an examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally, may write for "List of Questions" and circulars, both of which will be sent free of charge. Address

Carl Schurz denies the story that his friends are about to buy a Chicago paper for him.

Admiral Lespes tried to purchase from the Chinese a flag which he lost in battle, but the Celestials would not listen to his proposition.

The firm of H. D. Cooke & Co., bankers, of Washington, has failed. Mr. Cooke is a nephew of Jay Cooke.

MAKE way for the grand Republican demonstration to-morrow night. It will be a rouser.

THE Associated Press has frequently vindicated its efficiency by "scooping" the paid special Democratic liars.

CLEVELAND makes no sound or sign on the tariff question. Therein he resembles the traditional small boy at a husking-bee, who had nothing to say.

IT is a singular fact that wherever Schurz made speeches in Ohio, there the Republican gains were the largest. Schurz is a boomerang with spectacles and hindsight.

THE Ohio "idea" has had a good deal of chaffing and some ill-nature hurled at it in the past, but the latest Ohio idea is the best, to wit, the extinguishment of the Democratic party under a shower of ballots.

THE yield of the apiary of H. C. Parks, of Riverside, is one of the most remarkable on record. From thirty-three hives seven and a quarter tons of honey were gathered, an average of 439 pounds to the hive.

THE New York Star, the Tammany organ, says: "It would be futile to deny that this hard-won victory in Ohio will give a tremendous impetus to Blaine's canvass, and that everything hinges on New York, and there won't be a vote to spare."

IN the report of a Democratic meeting in St. Louis, the Republican says: "Booms were sent skyward at frequent intervals during the early part of the evening." Democratic booms will be sent in the opposite direction on the 4th of November.

To scratch or not to scratch is the question at many local elections. We think it will be wise, in this Presidential year, for the Republican voters of Los Angeles county to decide against scratching. Go the whole ticket, because you can't possibly better it by searching the enemy's camp for substitutes.

PATRICK EGAN, the Irish Land League advocate, says:

I made up my mind to support Mr. Blaine because from long observation I had come to regard him as an American of Americans, a man amongst men, as an able statesman, filled with culture, and experience to fill, with credit to the country and to himself, the position of President of this great nation.

The cash capital invested in manufactures in Cincinnati, according to the statistics of the Board of Trade, is $78,290,414. The real estate occupied by these is valued at $14,779,169, and the annual product is stated at $300,357,439. This employs 91,761 workers. These men would have to retire from their shops and make for the rural "districks" if Democratic free trade should prevail.

In the present House there are 325 members, divided as follows: Regular Democrats, 196; Republicans, 118; Greenbackers, 1; Readjusters, 5; Independents, 3; vacancies, 2. The Republicans must gain 45 members to secure a majority in the Forty-ninth Congress. If the rate of gain made by the Republicans in Ohio is maintained in the other States, the Democratic majority in the House will be made to look like a flyspeck on the flank of the sierra.

One year ago North Carolina sent a lot of minerals to the Boston Exposition; the specimens took the fancy of the Bostonians, and they invested $1,000,000 in the mineral lands of the Old North State. THE PRESIDENTIAL OUTLOOK.

One week from Tuesday next the case of Blaine vs. Cleveland will be given to the jury, and the verdict will, we are confident be in Blaine's favor. As Ohio may be counted sure for Blaine in November, the interest now centers in New York and Indiana. The New York bun, which ought to be good authority, says that the New York Evening Post, a Cleveland organ, has no conception of the magnitude of the Democratic revolt against Cleveland. Beyond a doubt the prospects of the Republicans in New York are improving daily. It is admitted by good judges that the interior of the State of New York, including the western half, will roll up a majority of not less than 60,000 for the Republicans. The question is, Can this majority be overcome by the adverse majorities cast in New York and Brooklyn? We think not. McPherson, Secretary of the National Republican Committee estimates the Republican majority in New York State as nearly fifty thousand. The estimate may be too large, but it is the judgment of a man who has the best possible information.

Then there is the Butler vote—a most important element in the calculation. This vote, it is estimated by the Butler managers, will mount up to 80,000 in the State. Suppose it only reaches 60,000—a moderate estimate—at least 40,000 of these Butler votes will be drawn from the Democratic party, to 20,000 from the Republican party. Can the Cleveland column stand this heavy detachment from its strength? We do not believe it. In the possible event that the result in the Empire State turns upon the Butler vote, it is morally certain that that vote will serve to throw the State into the hands of Blaine. We incline strongly, however, to the belief that the Plumed Knight is practically sure of New York against the field.

The Democratic press has made great ado about large and enthusiastic meetings in New York and Brooklyn, the Democratic strongholds for Cleveland. This is undoubtedly true, but it is well known that in times past a Democratic majority of even 70,000 secured in that part of the State beyond Albany has been swamped by Central and Western New York, and the State has gone Republican by a handsome majority; proving conclusively that the cities do not control the vote of the State. To illustrate: Once on the eve of a Presidential election the writer witnessed a Democratic procession in New York city. It was the largest and most enthusiastic gathering that he ever saw. There were more bands of music, more torch-lights, more Chinese lanterns, more transparencies, placards, etc., than he ever before dreamed of. It was hours in passing a given point, and this observer came to the conclusion that he had never before seen a procession. He stood awed by its magnitude. A man unacquainted with New York politics would, were he a betting man, have bet ten to one that the State would go Democratic by a large majority, and yet after all the State went Republican by a handsome majority.

In looking at the condition of the canvass, we try to divest ourselves of all partisan feeling, and this fact is obvious: Blaine's prospects of election are exceedingly good, certainly as good as Garfield's were four years ago to-day.

Indiana will show her reprobation of the Sentinel slander—the meanest, lowest, most cowardly, malicious and despicable personal attack made upon Blaine—by voting the Republican ticket. Whether she does so or not, Blaine's election is a foregone conclusion.

"We demand, as of paramount importance, a tariff sufficient in all things to protect our own laboring people, and to develop the resources of our own country."—[New Jersey Republican Platform.

This is the American-Republican idea, even if it did come from New Jersey.

The New York World celebrated its increase in circulation to over 100,000 copies by firing a salute.

THE ZENITH CITY.

Pleasant Mention of the Favorite Resort by the Western Sea.

SOMETHING AB UT HER GOOD HOTELS.

Contrasted With the Hostelries of Los Angeles—What We Need in that Respect—The Fame of Los Angeles Abroad.

[Correspondence of the TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 22, 1884.—I do not like invidious comparisons. They do not show good breeding; they are not polite, but sometimes they are good medicine, and on this ground I am going to indulge in some.

I woke up afresh to one of the needs of Los Angeles—our thrifty, stirring, growing and prosperous city—every time I come to Santa Barbara. Santa Barbara, quiet and beautiful here by the sea, sleeping in the golden sunshine of the centuries, with no sounding tread of the iron horse, no echo of its shrill whistle disturbing its pleasant restfulness, is yet far in advance of our growing metropolis in the matter of hotels. No wonder that the tourist in search of health, of pleasure and of comfort lingers here in the Zenith City, where, in the midst of green lawns, and in the shadow of palms and eucalypti, amid a world of blossoming fragrance and tropical richness, he can sit on the wide verandahs of the Arlington, and feast his soul upon the perfect charms that surround him at this most delightful of hostelries. Afar the mountains in their purple splendor, and nearer, the picturesque beauty of foothills and plains, and through the waving boughs the blue and shining seas, while on every side the ample grounds of the Arlington are spread out like a beautiful garden. Fountains send their silver waters into the sunny air to fall again in diamond spray upon the emerald of the grassy lawns. Tall and branching palms wave in tropical richness, and flowering vines run riot over trellis and verandah, and through their wealth of leaves the morning sunshine steals and paints its rich mosaics in sunlight and shadow upon the verandah's floor. Canaries sing in their gilded cages, and hammocks are swung in the pleasant shade. Even the roadway in front of the hotel grounds is planted on either side by rose bushes of every variety, which with the winter rains will burst into bloom and beauty, and fragrance.

They whisper to the air which sroand them Lingers, drinking in quiet ecstacy Their perfumed breath like some lover fond, and

All its touch the dewy petals softly
Stir and tremble in their fragrant gladness.
The dew sends soft-lipped blazes down; the sunshine pours its wealth of 4 interneer, and
Writes in perfumed poem in pale-red letters
Tints, which, mingling, lose themselves a mid the

Shades of pink and rich deep red and crimson,
And all the roadside dec. so fair and sweet,
A symphony in color, a rythm of
Sweet colors, a heavenly psalm of beauty.

The appointments of the house are equally attractive. The rooms are large and well furnished, and all of them have the sunshine during some portion of the day. They are also perfectly kept, always fresh, clean and inviting. The table is all that could be desired. Fresh fruits, butter, poultry and other ranch supplies are abundant and good, and in the place of skim milk—and watered at that—there is an abundance of rich yellow cream, such as reminds one of the farmers' tables "on the other side," where the cattle feed in the green clover meadows, and where the berries and cream bring the fullness of content to the soul of the most exacting epicure. After all, how much good there is to eat have to do with our good nature! I am JUST UP FROM THE BREAKFAST TABLE, and feel exceedingly amiable. Under the superior management of Mr. W. N. Cowles, whom nature must have especially designed for the place he fills, the Arlington is like a well-appointed home. One dainty and delicate expression of thoughtfulness is met with here which I never found at any public house before. On the breakfast plates of the lady guests are placed freshly gathered bouquets, wet yet with the dew of the morning distilling a fragrant and home-like welcome. It is a courteous way of saying "Good morning" to the guest, a delicate expression of thoughtfulness that makes the stranger feel that his comfort and pleasure are things remembered. Many are the expressions of pleased appreciation of this graceful courtesy that I have heard from the ladies.

The Arlington is now undergoing a thorough renovation. The walls are receiving fresh tints, and some of the rooms are being repapered, the painter is at work, daily verified, paring for a new ones supplied where the old ones are worn, and all the upholstered furniture that is tending in the least to shabbiness is to be placed in the hands of a competent upholsterer, and the house will soon be in complete readiness for the tide of visitors that will shortly be turned in this direction. A good many rooms are already engaged in advance, and the prospect is that both the Arlington and the Ellwood will be full early in the winter. I suppose that sensible people are staying at home to vote for Blaine and Logan, and as soon as their election is secured, the tourist, with a sense of duty well done, will turn to Southern California for the rest that he merits.

THE OTHER HOTELS in town are filling up. They are good houses, but lack the pleasant surroundings which make the Arlington so delightful a retreat. There are many strangers in town, as there have been through the summer, and the vacant houses have all, or nearly all, been taken.

And now, in the sublime language of the Concord philosopher, I should like to know the whyness of the why Los Angeles cannot have her Arlington? She has wealth enough for such an enterprise; she has numerous sites that could be made as attractive; she has men of public spirit, and a steady tide of tourist travel that demands a hotel on just such a large and generous plan as this. Tourists and invalids who are in search of comfort and ease and pleasure, are weary of public houses on the corners of dusty thoroughfares, in the midst of the noise and bustle of busy cities. There is nothing homelike (and that is what the heart craves) in four brick walls, piled story above story, with not a foot of green earth about them, nor the shadow of a tree, nor the beauty of a flower. Los Angeles should have something better than this, and she is able to have it. Among her thirty thousand people there is wealth and enterprise enough to furnish a hotel with all the accessories of beautiful surroundings that shall be second to none in the State. A site embracing five or ten acres should be purchased, and in its midst should be built a house worthy of our unexampled growth and prosperity. No city in the State has more attractions to offer the tourist, outside of her hotels, than Los Angeles. The East-rner's dreams of romance centre in her orange groves and never-failing flowers and sunshine. People just here from the East tell me that throughout the Atlantic States the traveler hears more inquiries made in regard to Los Angeles than any other section of the State, yet they say she has a somewhat unsavory reputation as regards the comforts of her hotel life. This ought not to be, and should be speedily remedied. Some of the leading capitalists of Los Angeles should take the matter in hand at once. There can be no question but what it would be a paying investment in the end, and it would add more to the reputation of our city, and do more to keep the traveling public with us than any other one enterprise that could be named.

Monterey has her Del Monte, Santa Barbara her Arlington, and let Los Angeles—the Queen City of Southern California—have her home for the traveler that shall be second to neither, one that with its green aisles of shade and its blossoming fragrance and beauty shall be to the invalid and stranger a charming retreat, full of restfulness amid the loveliness of our semi-tropic clime.

Campaign Chaff.

Baltimore American: It is the Ohio wool-growers who are going to make the Democrats look sheepish after November 4th.

Springfield Union: The prohibitionists ought to hoist a salt mackerel on their banner. It is about as good a cold water argument as we know of.

Providence Journal: The Louisville, (Ky.,) Post says: Speaker Carlisle gets mad if anybody calls him a free-trader. We expect soon to hear that Mr. Frank Hurd has been a consistent protectionist from the cradle.

POLITICAL POINTS.

New York Mail and Express: Cleveland's eloquence on the tariff is only exceeded by Kelly's silence for Cleveland.

The long-concealed truth about Cleveland has at last been told, and the truth is fatal. Day by day his real nature becomes known. His intellectual sluggishness, his meager knowledge, his coarse debauchery, shock and repel them. As between Blaine and Cleveland, the intellectual inferiority of the latter has always been apparent.

A Chicago hard shell Democrat, being asked why, not liking Grover Cleveland, he will, nevertheless, vote for him, exclaimed: "Because he is the nominee. I would vote for the false prophet of the Soudan, or the devil himself, if the Democratic National Convention had nominated him." There's party devotion for you!

A Democratic newspaper says that Cleveland should be elected President because he is honest." Will this newspaper explain, then, why he charged Erie county $650 for hanging Gaffney, while he charged but $500 for hanging Morrissey a few months before?

MEN AND WOMEN.

Mr. Coon, the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, invariably carries a fashionable umbrella or cane.

Prof. MAX MULLER in a recent speech declared it to be a "national misfortune when boarding schools took the place of public day schools."

Miss Garrett is the richest unmarried woman in the United States. She is 26 years old. She is a most accomplished woman, and an expert stenographer.

Light Shining on English Mines.

Globe-Democrat: The Whitehall Review, an English periodical, recently called attention to the rapidity with which the United States was paying off its nacional debt, and in contrasting our remarkable prosperous with England's hopeless prospects of following our example, gave expression to the heresy—in English eyes—that in America "it is done by justifiable protective duties, which if England were to adopt she could quite well do what America is doing, and greatly benefit her people in a thousand other ways." England is stubborn, but she has common sense and loves profits, and the next generation may see her as rabid for protection as she now is for free trade.

DO YOU SELL

THE PEOPLE'S STORE

---THEN---

You Can't Sell to Us!

Is the first question put to every commercial traveler who visits Los Angeles by our genial neighbors, ere the stupefied person has said good day, do his samples or solicited patronage. Well, we don't wonder at it. They cannot handle the quantity and cannot get the inside price, and as they are not content with a legitimate profit, they cannot afford to sell the same line of goods and compete with us.

This season we are showing an immense importation of the finest and choicest dress goods. Our styles embrace the latest novelties in stripes, plaids, plains and fancies. We are overstocked, and our dress goods will be found in piles reaching to the ceiling and at less than wholesale cost. This is a broad blow, but a fact, to be substantiated by consulting our prices and comparing them with those of others.

We have just opened nine cases of silks, velvets and plushes, in plains, brocades, and are selling these goods from 50c. to $1.50 a yard less than elsewhere.

To-morrow we will show over 500 new cloaks, wraps, Newmarkets, Dolmans, ettes, circulars, ulsters, etc., etc., in every design and style imaginable. Ladies are aware that the season is backward, that every house in town has made large importations—are heavily stocked—and if you think the PEOPLE'S STORE is going to keep these cloaks you're badly fooled. We know we've got a black eye as well as anybody, and this entire line of wraps is to be sold at less than the cost of the material, and we stake our reputation on the truth of this assertion.

We are offering bargains in gents' furnishing goods that cannot be equaled in the State. Our boys' clothing department is doing a splendid trade, owing our prices to be popular.

Our millinery department is in receipt daily of new novelties for hand and this season's styles embrace the most becoming and desirable.

Hughes' Russian Baths

Are located at No. 317 Main street, opposite Pico House. These baths consist of steam chambers, with a battery giving a current of Faradic electricity attached to each chamber, a shampoo and shower bath. Also, sulphur, borax and other medicated baths. There has been lately introduced into this sanitary institution the celebrated galvanic baths, which are highly recommended in all chronic diseases, and as the galvanic is a constant current and free from the shocks of the Faradic current, it can be given in greater quantity, which is always needed in chronic rheumatism, sciatica, and especially in paralytic cases, to give action to the motor nerves to operate on the muscles. Gentlemen and ladies attended to by persons of their own sex. se11 tf

The "steemed 'contemporaneous organ of the Latin and Teutonic races barely noticed Mr. Heathman's speech of Wednesday evening. The organ apparently thinks that the rising young statesman of the name of Heathman is no 'count. Perhaps it concludes that Hazard is going to be elected anyhow. If so, it is very right.

Engineers Fred Thayer and Dock Bahr, of the Southern Pacific Railroad, have their engines handsomely decorated with Blaine and Logan emblems.

Lace curtains, $1.35 per pair, others ask $3.00 for same, at People's Store.

All Irishmen in favor of the protection of our industries from the pauper labor of Great Britain are requested to meet at Opera House Hall, Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, and participate in the great Republican parade.

Mrs. Campbell's dancing school is rapidly filling up. She teaches all of the latest and most graceful dances, which, together with her agreeable manners, makes her deservedly popular. Her class meets at Turner Hall, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

To-day only, ladies' slippers, 50 cents, People's Store.

The fitting up of Walker & Smith's store, on South Spring street is rapidly approaching completion. Among other new inventions they will have a repeating shot-gun that can be fired six times in three seconds. They also have on the way a brass cannon for firing salutes, which will probably arrive in time to wake the echoes early in November.

If you can't spare the time to attend the sale of John C. Bell, to-morrow, leave your order with the auctioneer, he will attend to it, and purchase for you as economical as though you were on the ground yourself. The Dissolution Auction Sale takes place to-morrow, at 10 o'clock—on Saturday and Monday—at 32 South Spring street, at the warerooms of Allen & Thompson.

A Wheelbarrow Bet.

E. Nittinger and J. C. McMenomy made the following bet yesterday on the Presidential election: If Blaine is elected McMenomy is to wheel Nittinger in a wheelbarrow from First street up Main to the Pico House, and return, going down Main and via Spring and First streets back to the place of starting. Four escorts are to accompany the party during the grand march and take up a collection from the bystanders, the proceeds of which are to be donated to the Catholic and Protestant Orphan Asylums. This highly important event is to take place the day after the election, at 2 p. m.

O'Donnell's Foundry.

This institution yesterday was casting a lot of iron pillars. The process of melting the iron, tapping it while a molten liquid, and pouring it into the earthen molds is very interesting. The building boom of Los Angeles is going right along.

Crazy.

Thomas J. White was yesterday adjudged insane by the Superior Court, and will be taken to Stockton. White has lived in East Los Angeles, and has long shown signs of mental aberration. He is quite an old man.

Mining Locations.

Charles Happ and C. T. Healey have located two mining claims of twenty acres each in township 5 north, range 12 west, known as the Pine Gold claim, Los Angeles county, California.

GENERAL W. H. L. BARNES.

A Short Talk With the President of the Blaine Invincibles.

A TIMES reporter called on General W. H. L. Barnes, President of the San Francisco Blaine Invincibles, at the St. Elmo last evening. The General organized the Invincibles in the Grant campaign of 1872, and has been identified with them ever since. Owing to his legal engagements occupying so much of his time, of late years he has been unable to take an active part in politics; but this campaign he could not refuse the solicitations of his friends, and hence he finds himself in Los Angeles, booked to address the meeting to be held here on Saturday evening next.

In reference to the political situation, General Barnes says the Democrats expect to enter San Francisco with about one thousand majority, but he doubts their ability to do so. He says the Republicans will carry San Francisco by 2,000 majority, and will have at least 5,000 in the State. The only possibility of the Republicans losing San Francisco is in being counted out, the Democrats having the machinery in their control. The enormous increase in the registration, the General says, bears the marks of fraud on its face, and tends to show the desperate straits in which the Democracy finds itself.

Speaking of the Republican Wigwam in San Francisco, General Barnes says they had intended to build a frame structure, but were prohibited by the fire ordinance. They then erected a substantial brick structure, at a cost of $11,000, which was finished last August, and every night since its dedication a public meeting of some sort has been held there.

The Republican Candidate for County Clerk.

C. H. Dunsmoor, the Republican candidate for County Clerk, has been for twelve years a resident of this city, and it would have been almost impossible to find a man better adapted for the office than he is. Republicans and Democrats alike concede that not a word can be said against either his integrity or ability, and his only misfortune is that he is not as well known in the county as his competitor. Mr. Dunsmoor is a native of the Pine Tree State, and when quite young removed with his parents to Minnesota, where he was reared and educated. He settled in Los Angeles in 1872, and since then has been engaged in business, occupying many responsible positions, always with credit to himself and great satisfaction to the public. If he is elected to the office—and he is going to get there—he will make a record that all, irrespective of party, may justly be proud of.

It will be remembered that Mr. Potts, the present incumbent, has held the office for fourteen successive years, that he did not desire his present nomination, and it was forced upon him by the Democratic convention. Owing to his ill health he is compelled to leave the office principally in the hands of his deputies, and under these circumstances the independent, intelligent voter should not hesitate to vote for a man like Clerk Dunsmoor, who will give his personal attention to the duties required and is in every way qualified for the position.

The White Scale on San Pedro Street.

S. McKinley, of Vernon, informed a TIMES reporter yesterday that the white scale or cottony cushion scale is spreading fearfully on San Pedro street. Not only are the trees covered with it, but the vines, shrubs and weeds along the road are white with the terrible pest. The wind, and the open zanjas are almost sure to carry it to all portions of the city, and the expense to fruit-growers will be almost incalculable. Something ought to be done to show the rich syndicate which owns the old Garey orchard, the hot-bed of the pest, that the people of this county have some rights they are bound to respect. When the present inefficient and corrupt Democratic board of supervisors is turned out of office and men like Robert Widney, Esq., of Orange, James Feord of San Gabriel, and other practical fruit-growers take their seats there is a good reason to believe something will be done to exterminate the scale and protect the orchards.

Consul at Nogales.

Colonel Charles D. Poston, the renowned pioneer of Arizona, has received the appointment of United States Consul at Nogales. This is a flourishing little American-Mexican town on the Mexican border, where the A. T. & S. F. R. R. crosses the line on its way to Guaymas. Colonel Poston first entered the "sun-kissed land" in 1854, in his search along up the eastern shore of the Gulf of California for a suitable seaport, which he failed to find. He organized the first Mining Company in 1855—the Ajo Copper Mining Company—and was the first delegate to Congress in 1863. In 1856 he personally cared for the survivors of the relief party who went to assist Crabbe. A man who has dined with kings, queens and emperors, a thorough American of remarkable intelligence and humor, his appointment shows that republics are not always ungrateful.

Proposed Democratic Frauds.

Prominent Republicans of this city are in possession of information which renders it certain that the Democratic leaders have laid aside a large fund to be used for purchasing votes on election day. The facts leaked out a day or two ago, and energetic measures are to be taken to prevent the consummation of the fraud. If any repeater is caught, or it is proved that money has been paid for a vote, it will go hard with the parties concerned. Another Democratic scheme is to get a large proportion of their voters in a certain ward to the polls at an early hour and then challenge Republicans, so as to delay their vote and prevent a portion of it from being cast. The notorious "White House Ward" is to be the district chosen by the Democrats for their corruption scheme, but a most determined effort is to be made to prevent its consummation.

The Pay Rolls.

The City Council has failed twice this week to get a quorum for the transaction of a pressing lot of business. The Alameda and Los Angeles street sewers are being constructed, which together with the deputy zanjeros and street cleaners constitute quite a pay roll, which should be settled every week. By the negligence of a few Councilmen the laborers are forced to wait an inconvenient length of time for their pay, amounting in the aggregate to several thousand dollars.

Woodbury's Business College.

A. C. Woodbury, formerly of Heald's Business College, San Francisco, now offers to the young man of Southern California, at 316 North Main street, Los Angeles, all the advantages he formerly offered at that institution for securing a thorough business education, and he cordially invites the public to visit his school and gain a knowledge of his system of education.

The Chinese Temple.

A large temporary structure for religious purposes has been erected in Chinatown facing the plaza. The building has two rooms. Yesterday the different gods imported direct from China were unpacked. The poor horse-god had his right thumb broken off. A vast lot of paraphernalia was also opened up. Religious services will commence this evening.

Mass Meeting.

Grand mass meeting of the People's party at the Courthouse to-night (Friday). Major Horace Bell of the Porcupine, candidate for District Attorney, R. W. Ready, candidate for the Assembly, and A. Vinnette will address the meeting. We will tell what we think of the Democratic and Republican nominees. It

Moses Not in the Wilderness.

[Correspondence of the TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—The Democratic rally that had been so extensively advertised was held last night, attended principally by Republicans. The Moses of his party, Mr. Del Valle, did not put in an appearance. A few more gatherings like this was will make San Fernando the banner Republican precinct. It

A Startling Assertion.

The following extract from the Journal of Commerce is suggestive:

"Does the consumer, in purchasing a pound of green tea, receive a full pound of tea leaves? Chemical analysis of green teas has shown that the percentage of gypsum, indigo, Prussian blue and soapstone, is quite large. It certainly does not seem right that the consumer should pay the price charged for pure tea for something which may be pleasing to the eye but injurious to the digestive organs. The chemicals used in the preparation of green teas are apt to give tea a peculiar flavor, which is considered by some persons to indicate strength; but the consumer should know that he can secure that kind of strength much cheaper by purchasing some of those chemicals and adding them to the pure tea leaves."

The truest economy consists in purchasing not a so-called pure article, which may really be adulterated, but one about whose character there can be no doubt. The Perfection Tea Can is, as is well known, the only tea package extant which affords a recognized guarantee for the purity and character of its contents. No better reference can be given to Eola Tea, or the full-flavored "White Cross" brand by the importers, than to point to the package in which it is imported.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[This is the TIMES-MIRROR'S Public Forum. Those who would stand thereon must first give the editor their real names and be responsible for their opinions and statements.]

Dr. Congar Shown up by a Neighbor.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: "Honor among thievies" I admire, and think every human does. I do not believe as Col. H. H. Markham or Mr. O. H. Congar do, politically. I am a Southern man, and believe as Southern men generally do, while Markham and Congar are both from the North, and would favor only the North politically; and while they are the same to me politically, and while I would not favor either one of them in that line, socially, the men are calculated to call out sentiments from a neighbor or an acquaintance as different as any two men who could be selected in Los Angeles county, if it was desirable to find two of the most radically opposite natures. The one a man retiring, modest, gentlemanly, plain spoken, accommodating; the same today as yesterday, and those who know him never ask, will he be the same tomorrow? but will always trust their all with him, feeling certain he is exactly as he appears. To the great, the small, the rich, the poor, to all, under the same circumstances, the hat is politely raised, and that genial smile covers the face. The other man always desiring to be in the front, positively refusing to have anything to do with the matter, if not thus permitted; and woe betide the man who dare presume to differ from him in anything the slightest degree, and, though gentlemanly and pleasant when all goes smoothly, yet just as boisterously insulting as a prize fighter, only he who has excellent use of the English language, when his dinner does not digest well. But the reason for my thus addressing you is that I may say a word in this Chinese controversy between Dr. Congar and Colonel Markham. Now Congar accuses Colonel Markham of employing Chinamen upon certain occasions, thereby crowding out white men, and, so far as those times referred to by Dr. Congar I cannot speak. I know nothing personally, but I claim to be a man of reason and common sense, and have been personally acquainted with H. H. Markham since the first day he located in Pasadena, and Dr. Congar has been well known to me during the same time, and I can state that Colonel Markham has had Billie Harvey, a well paid American, in charge of his place from the first day he came here, and at times of crowding work other white men, and if a Chinaman was employed, Mr. Harvey, the superintendent, worked him temporarily, as an exception, and not because Colonel Markham thought Chinamen cheaper or more reliable," and what I say of Col. Markham can be said truthfully of but about two residents of Pasadena and proves that if he preferred to employ Chinamen to do the work of an incorporated company whose interests he had at stake, he certainly prefers employing white men on his own land.

He has had a white man working on his place here in Pasadena two or three times during the seven or eight years of his residence, as exceptions, but his regular superintendent and laborers have been Chinamen, sometimes keeping the same Chinaman for a year—he was "more reliable." Mr. Editor, I employ Chinamen and don't care who knows it. Dr. Congar would appear to think it disreputable to do so; and while acting thus disreputably always, attempts to cast disrepute on the character of his neighbor in order to injure him for spite's sake. Speaking of Congar, as an act performed once. Although as mean as he shows up in this transaction, he would not dare state but what Mr. Markham employed from two to four white laborers at his place constantly, while his own labor is regularly performed by Chinamen.

Politically Dr. Congar may kick Col. Markham, and assist in his defeat, but the spirit shown in this is a disgrace to Pasadena, a locality much spoken of for the gentility of her people; and, as a member of the Democratic party, I say to Mr. O. H. Congar, we can elect our man without the assistance of methods applied by men whose methods disgrace them before the State and would disgrace the party if applied for party purposes.
